A pioneer, a patroller and a promoter — three men intimately connected with Sunday River Ski Resort have recently been honored by organizations dedicated to skiing history.

Two were elected to Maine Ski Hall of Fame and will be formally honored at its annual banquet later this month in Auburn.

Bethel businessman Murray "Mike" Thurston will be recognized as one of Sunday River's visionaries and founders.

In the late 1950s he led a group that raised capital, cleared trails and built the ski area's first lifts and a lodge. Subsequently Thurston served as president and installed its first chairlift.

Also honored will be Dave Irons, who grew up in South Paris, schussed Sunday River as a recreational enthusiast on its first day of operation in sort's official 50th anniversary history.

And Leslie B. Otten, the visionary builder and promoter who developed Sunday River from a small community ski area to a major destination resort, was the subject of a major feature article in a recent issue of Skiing Heritage, the official journal of the International Skiing History Association.

Pioneer

It's hard for some people today to recall the time before Sunday River was Maine's biggest and busiest ski resort. But growing into a big, multi-million dollar business was never part of Thurston's 1959, and later ran its ski patrol for several years.

Although closely connected with Sunday River since its inception, Irons was elected by the Maine Ski Hall of Fame for a lifetime of achievement as a ski journalist and broadcaster.

Skiway announces $4.8 million in upgrades

ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Sunday River Ski Resort said Monday it is spending $4.8 million to expand snowmaking capacity, install a new "magic carpet lift" on its beginner slope, refurbish its lodgings and upgrade other facilities.

The announcement came one week after its sister resort, Sugarloaf USA in Carabasset Valley, detailed a $4 million program of new spending.

Both resorts were purchased in August by Boyne USA, based in Michigan.

The capital investments at Sunday River and Sugarloaf are the largest in more than a decade, according to the announcements.

Included: more snowmaking, refurbished lodgings, 'magic carpet' lift.

The $4.8 million being spent at Sunday River does not include the $2.5 million earmarked for the repair of damage to resort property from flash floods in July.

More than $1.3 million is being spent on renovations to the Jordan Grand Resort Hotel, Grand Summit Resort Hotel and slopeside condominiums, while nearly $1 million will go toward expansion of the snowmaking system.

The expansion emphasizes the use of low-energy equipment that reduces the amount of compressed air needed for snowmaking.

"We already have the reputation for top-quality snow, an expansive resort and a wealth of amenities, which has solidified us as a regional leader," said Dana Bullen, general manager at Sunday River.

"The improvements under way for this year will further increase our snowmaking competitive edge, especially early in the season, while enhancing the overall guest experience," Bullen said.

The 500 foot magic carpet lift will replace the handle tow in servicing the resort's Sundance learning terrain.

Effort underway to add 3,500-acre parcel to protected Grafton lands

By MICHAEL DANIELS

Having wrapped up work last month on a multi-year effort to provide permanent protection for the 3,688-acre Grafton Notch Forest Legacy parcel, a consortium of conservation organizations has now shifted its focus east, to an adjacent 3,500-acre parcel.

The so-called "Stowe Mountain Parcel" is currently under contract to the Trust for Public Land, a nationwide conservation organization that purchases and holds sensitive properties until they can be permanently protected by other governmental or private entities.

For example, the Grafton Notch parcel was purchased by TPL in 2003, then held until the $3 million purchase price could be raised from a variety of state, federal and private sources.

Once the money was raised, the parcel was turned over to the state and became part of the Mahoosuc Unit of the Maine Bureau of Public Lands.

The largest chunk, $2 million, of the Grafton Notch funding came from federal Forest Legacy Program funds.

The state of Maine has recommended Stowe Mountain for funding in the federal government's FY 2008 budget, which is currently in front of Congress.

Citizens' signatures force new articles onto warrant for Andover Town Meeting

By ALISON ALOISIO

Three additional articles will be added to the warrant for Andover's Oct. 11 special Town Meeting, following the receipt of a citizen petition.

The meeting, scheduled for 6:30 p.m. at the Town Hall, was called originally to deal with a shortfall in the Fire Department's budget.

But a petition circulated by Susan Merrow garnered more than the 45 signatures needed to add more articles.

A regular selectmen's meeting scheduled for Tuesday was cancelled (due to lack of a quorum), but selectman/secretary Hope Peterson said the articles would automatically go on the warrant.

The board discussed the articles at last week's meeting, when Merrow first requested that they be included.

Selectmen declined her request then.

Some at the meeting argued the issues would better be decided at an annual Town Meeting, when a greater number of voters would likely attend.

The articles are as follows: "To authorize the selectmen to approve all Andover Fire Department expenditures before any purchases are made until 2008 budget approval at the March 2008 Town Meeting. Suggested amount selectmen must approve above: $50."

"To see if the town will vote to establish that no selectman can hold any other paid town position while serving as se-

Med-Care towns ponder 40-year commitment

By ALISON ALOISIO

A proposal from Med-Care Ambulance to use a 40-year loan to fund a new $2.4 million facility in Mexico has given some Med-Care member towns pause.

Andover selectmen want more citizen input before deciding whether or not to support the plan.

But Newry selectmen paused only briefly before endorsing it.

Med-Care provides ambulance service for 11 towns in the Rumford region.

The service needs the support of all of the towns to obtain a U.S. Department of Agriculture grant to help construct the building, which would be located near the Region 9 center in Mexico.

Med-Care officials said the 40-year loan was chosen over a 20-year payback to allow some of the smaller towns to stretch out the payments.

The fixed interest rate would be 4.25 percent, according to information provided by Med-

Care.

In Andover, that would mean an increase in annual payments to Med-Care of $6,460 (over the current $10,692).

And for an individual taxpayer with a $100,000 home, the 40-year total impact would be $370.45.

But for Andover selectmen, 40 years seems like a long time.

Last week they put off a request from Med-Care for a let-

'HAVES' DON'T WANT TO SHARE

To the Editor:

As a businessman I am used to not winning every fight and I do not take it personally. However, when I lose because my opponent lies, bullies, and misrepresents the truth, I do have a problem. So let's set the record straight.

It is illegal to provide false or knowingly inaccurate evidence to the Court and Appeals Board. The opposition did this in the form of a knowingly incorrect plot plan. The Appeals Board should have thrown this whole thing out when the lies were discovered. This should have been discussed on the facts and not dramatics.

The statement from one woman that she wanted to keep the ponds clean for her grandchildren's swimming was applauded. However, swimming is a much greater source of pollution than boats.

The concern of erosion from the boats was a major concern. However, the same group of people wish to keep the ponds' level high which will cause 1,000 times more erosion than boats will.

The Board of Selectmen were opposed to me crossing the public boat launch parking lot for fear of congestion and losing a parking space or two. Yet two weeks later when a new buyer asks for the same crossing, it seems to be no problem.

All I am asking now is to fess up that the problem was never the location, it simply was the "haves" do not want to share their ponds with the "have nots."

Donald Lawrence
Bryant Pond

(Note: the letter writer had proposed to develop a 12-slip marina on Round Pond in Locke Mills. The proposal was eventually dropped, after town selectmen refused to grant commercial access across the town-leased public boat launch.)

NEWCOMER SAYS THANKS

To the Editor:

In late January, I became executive director of The Maine Conservation School (MCS) in Bryant Pond. Located on Lake Christopher just off of Route 26, MCS has been teaching children and adults about conservation and related outdoor skills for over 50 years. Having previously worked primarily in southern Maine and with few contacts in the local Bethel area, I began my first snowy day of work at MCS with a bit of trepidation.

My fears were quickly alleviated. In my first month of work, area residents called to introduce themselves and welcome me to MCS. Pat Roma and Steve Wight of the Bethel Rotary quickly invited me to come speak about our school. Robin Zinchuk and the Bethel Chamber of Commerce invited me to breakfast and introduced me to many welcoming members of the community. Walter Hatch and members of The Mahosuc Land Trust gave me a tour and background on conservation efforts in the area.

In the many months since January, the people of the Bethel area have continued to show their warmth, generosity and enthusiasm. Our May Clean-Up Day at MCS was a huge success and we cannot thank enough the many volunteers, from the Bethel Rotary, the Bethel Chamber and Norway-Paris Fish and Game to local residents for all their efforts in readying us for the summer season.

Youth Field Day, where children can come learn about our school, experience our programs and see MCS prior to coming to summer camp, had the largest turnout in its history this spring. Eighty-one children came to learn about conservation and have fun on June 9. Volunteers and supporting parents helped to make this event a great success as well.

Sixty-six percent of the children, who come to one of our one-week summer residential camps, arrive on some form of scholarship. Most would not be able to attend without this financial assistance. Several area residents have quietly provided scholarships for local children to our nonprofit this year and many have asked to remain anonymous. Area residents have also made donations for such items as tent repairs and equipment rental. Tony Chapman of The Finest Kind Logging Company in Greenwood donated thousands of dollars of tree work to help our nonprofit. Jim Mann of Mountain Mann Jewelers included us as a recipient of their auction this summer. The Carter Cross Country Ski Center held a fundraiser. The Stifler Family provided scholarships, made a generous staff donation and provided access and a tour guide for the Bumpus Mine. The kindness and generosity of Bethel area residents and businesses has been heartwarming.

Thank you for making a newcomer feel welcome and for the incredible support the Bethel area community has offered The Maine Conservation School. Bethel and the surrounding towns have shown a real commitment to preserving our natural resources and landscape through such initiatives as the Rumford WhiteCap Project. Thank you for also recognizing the importance of educating the next generations about protecting and becoming stewards of Maine's mountains, forests, lakes and streams. With this next generation, I have great hope for Maine's future environmental health and well-being.

Linda Walbridge

lectman to the town."

"To see if the town will vote to nominate a 2008 Budget Committee to consist of a minimum of six citizen volunteers, excluding selectmen. Appointments to be voted on at the special Town Meeting. If there are not six volunteers, the remaining positions can be appointed by Budget Committee members and selectmen."

Agenda to be posted

A fourth article proposed by Merrow at last week's selectmen's meeting stated that their agenda must be set and posted publicly, in a location other than the Town Office, by the close of business Thursday for the following Tuesday's meeting.

Selectmen agreed to honor that request themselves, but said the agenda would be posted at the Town Office.

"I think it's a good idea," said Rainey at last week's meeting. Selectmen said they have not previously made the agenda available because there are often last-minute additions.

But they said they could post it early and then add on items as needed.

In addition, they said, they would note on the agenda items that involve the expenditure of more than $1,000.

Rainey said that while citizens who show up at board meetings are generally allowed to speak, it would be preferable if they notify the Town Office of the subject ahead of time, to allow the board to gather information, if needed.

Med-Care

ter of support.

"Without more feedback from the town, I'm not comfortable with it," said Jeff Rainey.

Med-Care requested letters by Oct. 5, and Rainey said that doesn't even allow the town to arrange an informational meeting.

"It's not the money aspect, it's the time [commitment]," he said, that worries him.

Fire Chief Ken Dixon said he would have liked to have seen the numbers on a 20-year bond.

Rainey said Med-Care needs to reply to the USDA in October or November to maintain its eligibility for the grant.

A Med-Care representative will attend a special Town Meeting already scheduled for Oct. 11 to present information, selectmen said.

Newry

In Newry selectmen also wondered about the 40-year payment plan.

"That's a long time to pay," said Steve Wight.

The board also wondered whether a shorter-term payment was possible, at least for some towns.

Under the 40-year plan, Newry's increase in annual payments would be $2,538 (over the current $5,040), while the 40-year total impact on an individual taxpayer with a $100,000 home would be $31.21.

(The large difference between Andover and Newry is primarily attributable to Newry's relatively larger valuation and smaller population.)

The selectmen decided that while the length of the loan was a little daunting, it was still a good deal.

"You can't buy money cheaper than that," said Wight.

Jim Largess agreed: "I think it's cheap money. And they do a good job."

Hanover

Hanover selectmen are expected to act on Med-Care's request at their Oct. 16 meeting.

They will hear then from selectman Brenda Gross, who is also the town's representative on the Med-Care board.

Selectman Bruce Powell said the board so far is informally supporting the plan.

The increase in annual payments for Hanover would be $1,863, and the total 40-year impact for a taxpayer with a $100,000 home would be $279.14.

Public hearing

A public hearing on the proposed project will take place Tuesday at 6 p.m. at Mountain Valley Middle School in Mexico.

Newspapers

which is the backbone of the Sun Journal and our family of media companies," publisher James Costello Sr. said. "This really solidifies our presence in central Maine."

No operational changes are immediately planned for the acquired newspapers. Staff and the papers' publication schedules will remain the same.

The Franklin Journal, which covers Franklin County news, publishes Tuesday and Friday; the Livermore Falls Democrat, publishes every week, as does the Old-Town/Orono-based Penobscot Times. The Rangeley Highlander, a tabloid, publishes every other week.

Ed Snook, treasurer for Sun Media and publisher of The Bethel Citizen, said the acquisition brings advantages to both readers and advertisers. "For advertisers, this allows them to be in different publications that reach readers throughout the state," said Snook, who will oversee the Kirkland papers.

"They can pick and choose from the whole group for their advertising needs," Snook said.

Combined with the Sun

Journal and its sister publications, Sun Media papers will now reach more than 260,000 readers.

Readers will be able to follow news coverage from different publications to gain a greater understanding and perspective on local issues.

"Competition is a good thing for the readers," he said.

Snook said the acquisition was initiated by Bill Kirkland, a longtime newspaperman who lives in North Carolina.

Kirkland said he felt good about passing the torch to the Sun Media.

"I thought the Sun Journal was a good match; I didn't talk to anyone else," he said. "It's passing from one family-owned company to another family-owned company."

Both parties declined to reveal the purchase price.

The acquisition falls in line with Sun Media's goal to diversify holdings and revenue streams, while maintaining the quality newspapers that have defined the Sun Journal since its founding more than 150 years ago.

"The Sun Media emphasis is not just on daily newspapers, but expanding on other interests, and weeklies are part of that," said Snook, noting that the Kirkland newspapers are financially sound and turning a profit.

The Sun Journal acquired The Bethel Citizen in 1989, from Bernard Wideman.

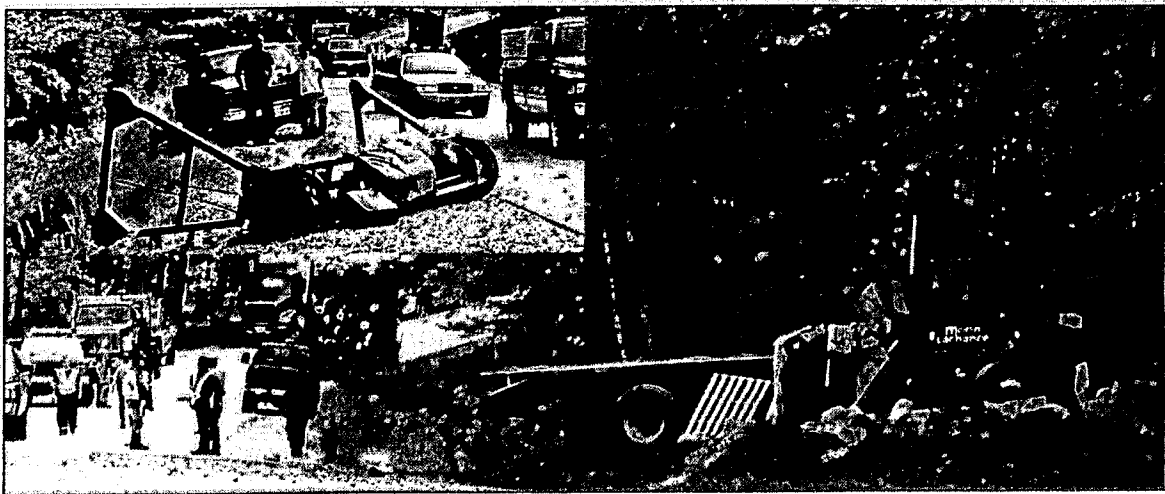

Wideman had acquired the newspaper five years earlier, purchasing a majority stake from the Brown family of Bethel, which had published a newspaper here since 1895.

The Sun Journal acquired the Oxford County-based James Newspapers in 2005 when veteran journalist and Pulitzer Prize-winning publisher Howard James decided to spend more time with family and focus on writing books.

In 2003, it purchased the Forecaster, a longtime weekly newspaper in Falmouth. Within two years, it launched editions in mid-coast Maine, Portland and its suburbs, expanding coverage as far south as Scarborough.

In addition to the newspapers, Sun Media is involved in several multimedia projects that couple local news and information with electronic and digital delivery.

The Sun Journal has been published by the Costello family since 1898.

"A CLOUD OF CONCRETE DUST" was all John Cox (inset, in white shirt) of Woodstock could see Wednesday morning when two large trucks collided in front of him on Route 26 near North Pond. Cox hit his brakes and stopped just in time to avoid a boom that fell off one truck, which was carrying concrete blocks. "I'm glad I wasn't tailgating," said Cox. The northbound concrete truck and a southbound pulp truck met near the center line, according to Trooper Ronald Turnick of the Maine State Police. The concrete truck ended up in the woods. The driver was able to climb out himself, but sustained a serious head laceration and a hip injury, Turnick said. The driver's name was not immediately released because of his injuries, but the truck door displayed lettering for Morin LaChance of Auburn/Rumford. He was taken to the hospital by Tri-Town Rescue. The pulp truck (left center in the larger photo), driven by Larry Buck, 50, of Rumford, sustained damage to its left side wheels. Buck was out walking around after the accident and was apparently not seriously injured. The Woodstock and Greenwood fire departments and an MDOT crew assisted with detouring traffic around nearby Rocky Road.

No night skiing for this season

NEWRY—An application before the Planning Board from Sunday River Ski Resort to offer night skiing has been withdrawn for now, according to Sunday River spokesman Alex Kaufman. A public hearing that had been scheduled for last night (Wednesday) was cancelled, he said. Sunday River will not pursue the proposal to establish night skiing for the upcoming ski season, "but we're still exploring the idea of it," he said. Kaufman said there is not enough time to provide all the details needed to try to get approval for this season. The plan called for lighting three slopes at the resort.

Minimum wage increases

AUGUSTA—Thousands of Mainers got a pay raise Monday as the state's minimum wage increased from $6.75 to $7 an hour. About 26,000 people earn the minimum wage in Maine, according to the state Department of Labor. The Legislature last year approved bumping up the state's minimum wage, first from $6.50 to $6.75 an hour last October, and again this October to $7. The federal minimum wage rose to $5.85 an hour this summer, an increase of 70 cents an hour for the first increase in a decade. The "long overdue" minimum wage hike will help Maine families while boosting the state economy, said Senate President Beth Edmonds, D-Freeport. "Increasing the minimum wage will help our families to better provide for themselves and will return more money back to our local businesses," said Edmonds. Some job categories are exempted from the minimum wage, such as farm workers, service employees who receive tips, domestic workers, taxi drivers and camp counselors.

Tannery cleanup completed

SOUTH PARIS—A contaminated former tannery site that threatened local waterways has been cleaned up, the government said. The yearlong project at the site of the A.C. Lawrence Tannery in western Maine cost $4 million, the Environmental Protection Agency said. The work involved excavation of 33,000 tons of chromium-contaminated soil and restoration of the bank of the Little Androscoggin River. The EPA said that from 1952 to 1977, the tannery put its waste in lagoons near the river. The cleanup prevents chromium sludge from getting into the river and drinking water supplies, the agency said. Local and state agencies helped with the cleanup.

Agencies oppose Plum Creek

PORTLAND—Federal and state conservation agencies are weighing in against a huge development proposed by Plum Creek Timber Co. for the Moosehead Lake region. The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, the Maine Inland Fisheries and Wildlife Department and other agencies have submitted formal written comments in which they conclude that the plan's drawbacks outweigh the benefits. The agencies say habitat will be lost for loons, bald eagles and Canada lynx; fishing quality will be lowered; and recreational access to the woods will be reduced. Public hearings on the proposal are scheduled for November. "The anticipated increase in development and its associated demands will forever change the characteristics of the region," read the joint comments submitted by Fisheries and Wildlife and the Maine Natural Areas Program. "We are not aware of mitigation or conservation measures that can fully offset the permanent changes that will result from the full build-out of a proposal of this magnitude." Those comments are outlined in written testimony submitted to the Maine Land Use Regulation Commission in late August. They are among the large number of comments that have been submitted both for and against the development. The plan has come under intense scrutiny since 2005 when Plum Creek first proposed rezoning more than 400,000 acres around Moosehead Lake, the gateway to the North Woods. If approved, the plan would create the largest subdivision ever in Maine, with close to 1,000 house lots as well as two resorts. About 20,000 acres would be developed, with the company donating a conservation easement of 90,000 acres and selling conservation easements on lands totaling 341,000 acres. The written comments include support for Plum Creek's plans. Supporters say the plan carries significant benefits for the state and a region that is in desperate need of jobs and people. They further say Plum Creek's long-range plan would be less destructive to the region's natural resources than if it were rejected and the land was gradually divided and developed over time. But the comments from government agencies are drawing attention because it marks the first time they have put detailed concerns about Plum Creek's plans on the record. The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, the Maine Department of Environmental Protection and the Maine Bureau of Parks and Lands all recommended changes in the plan. The agencies have not recommended that Plum Creek's rezoning application be denied, and they credit the company for presenting a long-term regional plan instead of piecemeal development. But they say some development zones should be scaled back or eliminated, and that conservation and public access agreements be strengthened.

Poor air quality days up

BOSTON—As the 2007 summer ozone season comes to an end, EPA today confirmed that New Englanders experienced a modest increase in the number of poor air quality days this year, compared to 2006. The increase in number of days with reduced air quality is related to hot weather experienced throughout the region during the summer. Based on preliminary data collected between May and September, there were 26 days when ozone monitors in New England recorded concentrations above levels considered healthy. By contrast, in 2006 there were a total of 16 unhealthy ozone days. Over the longer term, however, the air quality in New England continues to improve. The number of unhealthy ozone days in each state this summer were as follows: 17 days in Connecticut (compared to 13 in 2006); 20 days in Massachusetts (11 in 2006); 8 days in Rhode Island (3 in 2006); 8 days in Maine (2 in 2006); 6 days in New Hampshire (2 in 2006); and 1 day in Vermont (none in 2006). Ground-level ozone, the main ingredient of smog, is unhealthy when average concentrations exceed 0.08 parts per million over an 8-hour period. The increase in the number of days with unhealthy air this year was directly related to the increase in the number of hot days this year. Sunlight and high temperatures speed the formation of ground-level ozone smog; many areas of New England had more days exceeding 90 degrees this summer than during last summer. August and September were especially hot, dry and sunny for much of New England. Although warm temperatures this summer led to an increase in unhealthy days, over the long-term New England has experienced a decreasing number of unhealthy ozone days. Also, peak ozone concentrations have decreased significantly over the last 30 years. In 1983, New England had 90 unhealthy days, compared with 26 this summer.

Even the Milky Way bars will whisper sweet nothings to me if I go anywhere near them. "Come

"Chips on the lips means fat on the hips."

Right then and there I created a little mantra to help get me through the store. "Chips on the hips means fat on the hips." I chanted that over and over to myself until I rounded the corner where the freezer section is. There was Cheryl Garcia tap dancing in the freezer shouting, "I scream, you scream, we all scream for ice cream." My knees buckled when the pint tipped its lid to me.

I made my fat free purchase and got out of that store as quickly as I could feeling both sad and glad at the same time. Sad that I have to stay away from my favorite comfort foods and glad that I didn't listen to their calls to me.

My home is pretty close to a "fat-free zone", but even there the food talks to me once in a while. The other night I opened a box of low fat snack crackers and I looked at the suggested serving size just to make sure I wasn't about to over indulge.

That's when one of the little crackers said "Ignore the serving size, we're baked, not fried, we can't hurt you that much. Go ahead, eat all you want." I headed for the living room with the whole box of crackers in hand when the grapes started shouting from the refrigerator. "Hey, you can probably eat 30 of us and we're a lot bigger than those pathetic tasteless little smart aleck crackers. And, you won't feel at all guilty." I ate the grapes.

It is a bit disconcerting to have food talk to you even when it's sometimes good food. I'll be doing my Halloween candy shopping soon and I fully expect to hear an entire chorus at the candy aisle trying to entice me. I'm not worried though, because the way I see it, I can depend on the herbs to get me through it. I'm going to take a couple of those ground grass capsules with me and when those sweet voices start to sing, I'll just stick the capsules in my ears.

This report highlights points of interest from the Bethel Police Department log. It lists cases reported in the log of adults being arrested or issued a summons in the 10 days prior to the newspaper's publication, but does not include all reports of police activity, such as routine speeding tickets and other civil violations. To reach the Bethel Police Department, call 911 in emergency situations, 824-3497 in non-emergencies.

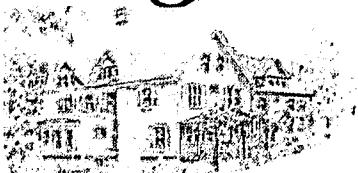

Tips from the Bethel Police Department

1. If you dial 911 by mistake, don't hang up. Stay on the line and tell the dispatcher what happened.
2. So that responders can find you quickly in an emergency, make sure your house number is clearly visible from the road — on the house if it is near the road, or on a mailbox or post if the house sits more than 50 feet back.
3. Watch out for scam letters and phone calls. A letter may state you have won money and need to pay a fee to claim the prize and release the money. Sometimes people will receive a check they are directed to cash, and then repay a portion to the sender. Phone scams may also attempt to elicit information (such as a social security number or birth date) the caller can use to steal someone's identity. And if a caller says they are collecting money for a good cause, ask that written information be sent first.

Bethel

Mayville and Around Town
On Sept. 21 Hancock Lumber's planer mill at South Bethel set a new single-shift record of processing 267,000 board feet or just under nine trailer truckloads of lumber. Read more about the mill in Hancock Lumber — Part II below.

Foliage season and Columbus Day: 'Tis the season for bus tours through Bethel. Many lunch tour buses stop with their up to 44 riders at The Bethel Inn and at the Brew Pub. Bus tour operators like Bethel Inn's location in an historic district — a lodging style that fits the ages of many tour takers. Last Thursday a group of Bethel Inn alumnae known as the BIG enjoyed lunch at Serendipity Café. They had planned to eat at the inn but were preempted by the number of bus tours stopping there for lunch.

Only by a 3-2 vote on Monday night did the Mason Street sidewalk project stay alive. Chairman Stan Howe voted to break a tie and voted in favor of continuing to authorize sending a letter of commitment to the MDOT. Selectmen Dennis Doyon and Jack Cross were opposed due to the good possibility of large as yet unforeseen annual expenses that could come from the "sidewalk" plan. An ad hoc committee was appointed, however, and they will be charged at the next regular selectmen's meeting. The seven members are: from Mason Street, Melissa Arnsen, Barry Hallett, Heidi Godowski, Rebecca Zicarelli, and Virginia Lister; Woodleigh Hughes from Chapman Street and Barbara Russell from SAD44. Only seven interested citizens showed up for the meeting.

Jeep Jamboree fans made this weekend a foursome of groups along with Gould reunion alumni, foliage sightseers and bus tour groups.

Bethel's Post Office closed early on Saturday so that new lobby flooring could be installed, and it was.

What looked like a sellout lunch crowd at the Brew Pub on Sunday included some autos of legend including a vintage (maybe 1940) Packard convertible.

Alumni reunion weekend at Gould enjoyed fine weather and a happy turnout. The new basketball floor in Farnsworth Field House was dedicated and the first Academy Hall of Fame inaugurated. Opinions heard at lunch in Ordway Hall were that more came this year than at any time since the dining hall had opened for the luncheon. The Gould Academy Alumni Association was formed in May 1891. Its first president was B.L. Bryant and the academy principal who encouraged the new organization was Arthur D. Hall. The association's preamble included an effort to establish contact with former students. So this year's reunion marks the association's 116th year.

My reunion Class of 1952 celebrated its 55th year. Sue Darcy Murphy chaired a session of "telling your story" for each class member to give a two-minute bio of their last five years. Jan Lord Mott gave a pitch for joint reunions with classes graduating next to ours and Roger Adams reported on fundraising and the alumni association. Seventeen sat for their reunion photograph after the Saturday noon luncheon at Ordway Hall.

Bob and Ginny Keniston are manning their Fryeburg Fair booth for the 15th year. They are getting family help from their daughter, Martha Bangs, and her husband, Glenn. Bob says he is looking for a chance to visit other exhibitors in the Forestry Building. One of Bob's favorite stories is about wrangling his way into the VIP area of the campsite lots. He makes a number of trips to Fryeburg before opening day to get their setup material transported from home — about 3,400 to 3,500 people rent camping lots for fair time and the security force has had to grow considerably.

Bob tells about the exhibitor who was caught trying to ex-filtrate some of his booth's wares before fair closing time of 9 p.m. on Sunday. Getting caught cost him loss of display space in the building. Bob (GA 1938) and Ginny (GA 1940) made it back to Bethel for the Gould reunion luncheon and class parade.

Sunday our potato field was dug and the crop trucked out before 1 p.m. in spite of a breakdown delay. We have five-plus acres planted by Sunday River Farms. From this about five-plus truck loads of what growers call "chippers" are hauled to Rumford Point where this class of potato is immediately loaded onto large trailer trucks and shipped to Connecticut (Frito Lay). Like U.S. industry in general, farming has increased its labor productivity with improved machines. Two diggers, two tractors and two trucks handled by four men do the same job that large crews hand picking and loading barrels used to do.

Best way to cook potatoes — from men who know: Cut the potatoes into thick slices; place them in a foil pouch; add some slabs of butter, seal the pouch and cook on a gas grill. Hancock Lumber — Part II

Hancock Lumber's website shows that the company owns three sawmills, Bethel, Pittsfield and Casco. Bethel's output is the largest of the three. George Nickerson carries around a portfolio of jobs not just one; he is my source of mill information for this week's Hancock Lumber installment.

"We buy logs from Northern New England and many come from upper New York State. We buy 7- to 40-inch diameter logs. Logs are bought by grade and they range from 10 feet, 4 inches to 16 feet, 4 inches in length. On the average we buy about 17 loads of logs a day. Log trucks haul about 6,000 board feet and log trailers haul about 8,000 board feet.

"The mill runs about 254 days a year. A sawmill shift is 10.5 hours and the sawing budget for a shift is 160,000 board feet. (Memory recalls) that in the late 1970s the P.H. Chadbourn & Co. mill manufactured about 35,000 board feet per shift. Between 1986 and 1993 the old mill production reached about 50,000 board feet per shift. After 1993, Chadbourn's started on their mill expansion."

By using state-of-the-art computer, laser and sophisticated hydraulics technology, the sawmill looks for a 30-percent-plus yield so that to produce 160,000 board feet of lumber the mill needs about 122,000 board feet of logs. Green lumber packages (automatically stacked and staked) that come out of the sawmill are 6 feet wide and 6 feet to 16 feet long; they have an average of 2,500 board feet per stack. About 64 packages a day are produced.

As mentioned above, about 17 truckloads of logs arrive each day and about five trailer loads of lumber are sold daily, making up about 1,300 trailer loads a year. In addition to this four loads of pine chips are hauled to NewPage at Rumford each day for a yearly total of about 1,016 loads.

Upton

by Eleanor LeComte
October has arrived and like every other year the skies are blue, the brightly colored leaves are falling, and the gardens are on the wane. It prepares us for the cold months ahead. Although we have not had a frost yet the nights warn us that winter is on the way. That's the bad news! Now the good news is that the long, warm September produced red tomatoes in Upton. It took "Global Warming" to give us an edible tomato.

Although Virginia Williamson is over eighty it didn't keep her from canoeing up-lake on Sunday. Kayaking was increasingly popular this summer. It's a nice way to enter coves and see the occasional loon, moose, deer or eagle. C.J. Stratton received a very nice kayak for his birthday. When his back problem subsides he will get used to it.

Jim Rector has done it again. Last week he hiked 21 miles in the White Mountains. He said it was very beautiful. At night he slept in his tent and woke up soaked in the morning mountain mist. The sun soon dried his gear and he proceeded to cover territory from Wildcat to Pinkham Notch. The views were spectacular.

Our new neighbors, Lindsay and Jeff Hershburger, spent their first night at the Stratton Gelling house. They are long-time lovers of Lake Umbagog. Could you blame them?

Carolyn Taylor and her daughter, Beth, and little Emmett enjoyed Saturday at Gould Academy, meeting up with old friends. Heather, Carolyn's other daughter, has recently moved to Bethel with her husband and children.

The Red Sox "clinched" the American League East pennant last week. Let's hope they can continue on and win the World Series. Beware! The Yankees are still in the playoffs! Dr. Neal Keeshan drove over from Guildhall, Vt., to do some radio-controlled flying with Richard. Windy conditions cancelled the flight operations, but nevertheless a pleasant afternoon was spent.

Larry Davis reports that the mouse population explosion is continuing. He has bravely subdued ninety of the little monsters. Ginny Williamson's cat takes second place with about twenty mice captured and presented to Ginny last month. Of course she was thrilled! So far I haven't had a problem, thanks to the Casey's cat who hunts daily around my house. This cat has perfect camouflage with an orange and brown coat. Go, get 'um, good kitty.

The Fryeburg Fair is here again. Lucille and Earl Larresse never miss the fair. Many families in Upton plan to attend.

Last week, I replaced the battered birdfeeders. Bears no longer plunder them, but the red squirrels have arrived with all their rodent relatives. Since they all look alike it's impossible to count them. Bob Davis holds the record for red squirrel captures. I hope he doesn't join the guy that drops gray squirrels and cats in Upton! It's too bad that the little "bushy-tailed rats" aren't edible. They could provide protein for the town.

The "Bird of the Week" is the tufted titmouse who is feeding down at Williamson's. We haven't seen one here in years.

West Bethel

by Lorrie Hoeh

It is definitely fall now, with cool, sometimes frosty nights, and breezy, sunny days with blowing leaves, wood smoke in the air, and beautiful color emerging all around. We started eating the sauerkraut we put up a few weeks ago, and it is delicious. Yard cleanup continues, and we have had our first taste of this year's brussels sprouts. "The frost is on the pumpkin and the fodder's in the shock."

This is Fryeburg Fair week, and I worked there for the first time on Monday, then will work again on Wednesday, Friday, and the final Sunday, demonstrating spinning and all its ramifications in the Farm Museum up near the kiddie rides. We had a busy day on Monday, with lots of people stopping by and asking interesting questions. I like it best when children come and show an interest in the process. It's always a wonderful opportunity for a "teachable

The Pleasant Valley Grange entered two exhibits at the fair, as usual. Their agricultural display garnered a second-place ribbon from the fair, as well as a second-place ribbon from the Maine State Grange, along with a special second-place plaque from the Grange. Fourth-place ribbons were awarded to Pleasant Valley's domestic display, one from the fair, and one from the Maine State Grange.

I know what a lot of work went into preparing both exhibits. Last Friday, Nancy Buzzell, Lorraine Anderson, Barbara Mahler, and Jane Hosterman worked on the domestic display. John and Pauline Applin put in serious time on the ag display. The Applins also did a stint on Monday manning the State Grange booth. Congratulations all around for a job well done.

Jane, Barbara, and Nancy all stopped in at the Farm Museum to say hello and chat for a while with me and my weaver friend, Grace McKivergan. They were enjoying the fair but seemed very happy for a chance to sit down across from us and rest their weary dogs. Another visitor was Seneca Corrievau with her three children and a niece in tow. Seneca is quite a fiber artist herself, making all sorts of interesting felted items.

You may recall the front-page photo in last week's Citizen which pictured a bunch of people trying to pull an airplane. I talked to Gary Imman, who was one of those pullers, about the event. It was a fundraiser for Maine Multiple Sclerosis Society, and the teams were mostly made up of people who had a friend or loved one with M.S.

There were 13 teams which brought in over $30,000 for the cause. FedEx provided the plane to be pulled, along with a ground crew to maneuver it back to the starting line each time, and someone inside the plane to stop it at the appropriate time. Gary said that there was a timing mechanism on the front wheel which would turn off the clock as soon as the plane had rolled 12 feet along the tarmac.

Each team had two tries at moving the plane in the shortest amount of time. Winning time was 5.4 seconds.

Gary's team was called "Perfect Stitch Multi-Serve," since they were provided with tee shirts by the Perfect Stitch Company of South Paris. Most of his fellow teammates were state workers, game wardens, state police, or D.O.T. workers. They had to pull on a long rope attached to the front wheel of the plane.

Gary said that it seemed really difficult to get it started,

I'm putting this announcement from Martha Clements back in because I need a reminder too. I really hope to be there. On Tuesday, Oct. 9, at 2 p.m. John Ames and John Davis will be guest speakers at the Whitman Memorial Library in Bryant Pond. They will be talking about their work with George Melville putting together a history of Grand Trunk New England Lines called "Trackside." Railroad and history buffs will enjoy hearing about the trains of the past that went right through all of our little towns. Please note that not only is the meeting in the afternoon, but it will be on Tuesday for this month only. All are welcome at no charge and light refreshments will be served.

We were blessed on Saturday afternoon with a visit from Foxy and Hanna. They were out for a walk and stopped to see how Anita was getting along. Foxy had to give us lots of love and had to be held by one of us all the time.

Ray and Noreen had the pleasure of attending Saturday's Sox game. Ray was able to touch the Sox's World Series trophy and just knows that he has the power now. But you know how "older" brothers are? Bet he has forgotten what power by now. But they did have a wonderful time with the grandsons.

The Captain called me today and wanted me to be sure and put in the paper about the Firemen's Association having a Spaghetti Supper on the 20th of October. The Capt. assured me the Association will be finalizing the full menu and other activities this Wednesday evening. I'm just a waiting for further details and instructions as to what Anita and I have to help with. And I am extending an invitation to our New Hampshire buddy and his Maine squeeze. I really think they should be there. Anita thinks it would be a good time and for a very good cause.

Harold and I worked on firewood this weekend. It really has been nice and so easy to sit down and view the foliage. Plus we were talking about a number of classified events that occurred in recent times. Well just a bit ago, I bet Jane's ears were ringing this afternoon as she sent me several very good E's this evening. Jane was in several of them classified events. But then most of WPHS was in them events too. Oh my!

Our niece and her main squeeze are signing on a house in Dixfield this Monday. They are very happy and brother Ray is just thinking of being able to go to his daughter's and fish the Webb River from Sarah's backyard. Just know that Sarah and Zack will have a nice place there. And it will be much easier on the fuel bill, as they live in Farmington and teach in Dixfield and Mexico.

Almost forgot to say something about the supper that is coming up on the 27th of October. Jefferson Lodge and Tri-Town Rescue Auxiliary will be having a Chowder and Soup Supper. I reluctantly agreed to do a chili for it. I guess that my main concern is the after effects from this time and thoroughly tested work of art. My greatest moment was when little Todd asked me for a second bowl. The sweat was just a pouring from around his eyes and he devoured the second too. Guess it was good for him as he is big enough to carry me around now. But we will be having various chowders and fixins'. Be a good time for them tired hunters, as it is the first day of hunting. I hear Wilda will be making some of her wicked good biscuits. I would show up just for them.

Time to call it a day. My power nap has worn off; the legs don't feel so good. So be happy and keep a smiling!

After an enjoyable stay in Strasburg, Colo., we headed northwest to Cheyenne, Wyo., and a brief visit with friends whom I had not seen since I left Minot, N.D., in 1965. We reminisced about old times and old friends and resumed our westward trek, this time adjusting course to pass through the Grand Tetons and Yellowstone National parks.

The new route took us west on I-80, where we encountered a 50-knot crosswind from the southwest that made my truck swerve every time a semi-truck passed us. The wind and mountain driving sapped our gas mileage so that we made only 10 MPG on that tank. Unlike our previous visit to the Tetons, this time the air was crystal clear, and the Teton peaks stood out brilliantly white/gray, with wisps of snow drifting from them, white against a powder-blue sky.

From there we headed into Yellowstone, where we saw elk, bison, a coyote, and Mona got a Yellowstone stamp in her national park passbook.

In West Yellowstone we paid $3.10/gal. for gas and headed north toward Whitehall, Mont., where we planned to camp overnight.

We found the address for a good-sounding campground in our 2007 AAA guidebook and plugged it into our new GPS unit. Then we followed the GPS directions to an interstate exit and a very narrow, winding road to a spot near the railroad where the GPS said "You have arrived at your destination." Trouble was, there was nothing there but an old weed-covered gate and pasture fence. The space between the fences on both sides of the road was too narrow to turn our camper around so we drove on, hoping to find an open gate. In about a mile, we flagged down an approaching pickup and asked the driver where our campground was. "That used to be a really nice campground, and it was just back there a ways by the railroad track, but they found out there was a high-volume, high-pressure gas pipeline that ran right through the middle of the campground, and the state made 'em take it out! That must have been two or three years ago." Damn! Am I going to give AAA a piece of my mind! We ended up in a KOA campground in Butte for the night.

Next day's beautiful scenic drive through Lolo Pass and down the Clearwater River brought us to Orofino, Idaho, and my niece, Lee, and her husband, Paul Pippenger. They were wonderful hosts and showed us around the Orofino area, where we met quite a few of their friends. We were thoroughly impressed with their recently completed "Lodge at River's Edge" on the bank of the Clearwater River and by the energy they are expending on several other projects in Orofino. We also enjoyed trips to several small western towns in the area.

The most unusual experience was a visit to the village of Nez Perce and the combine destruction derby there last Sunday. Only in the American West can you see four brightly painted grain combines at a time bent on destroying each other! Engines roar, dirt flies, and big machines collide with loud bangs and the rending of metal and wheels. Within about five minutes time, only one or two of the great machines is/are still running and able to move on their own power. These then depart the arena and begin preparations for the final heat that will determine the lone survivor and champion of the event. Meanwhile, a giant bucket loader and 4x4 John Deere tractor push the immobile combines off the field and pick up the debris before the next heat. Beer and lots of food are sold in an atmosphere akin to a county fair.

Next: On to California.

Hello October! We certainly can't complain about September weather. Let's hope that October is just as good. This week is Fryeburg Fair time! Lots of Andover people bring their campers over and spend the week out there.

On Oct. 9, there will be a public hearing on the proposed new Med-Care building. The hearing starts at 6 p.m. at Mountain Valley Middie School in Mexico. All residents in the area towns are invited to attend.

Attention Andover Residents: There will be a special Town Meeting held on Thursday evening, Oct. 11, at the Town Hall. It will start at 6:30 p.m. There will be a couple of articles to vote on. Look for the agenda posted shortly.

The Town Office will be closed on Monday Oct. 8, in observance of Columbus Day.

The Library will be closed on Saturday, Oct. 6, for the Columbus Day holiday.

Telstar friends and Alumni — this is Homecoming Weekend! Things kick off on Friday with field hockey games, followed by a parade starting at the Bethel common, and ending with a bonfire. Posters are up in the stores for more information.

Happy birthday to Emma Nelson today, Abigail Jones on the 8th, and Nia Dixon on the 10th.

The school kids have a long weekend, no school tomorrow and none on Monday because of Columbus day. Enjoy!

September 20th News: Hello folks, nice and brisk in the morning lately! Monday a.m. I had ice on my windshield. At least the days are still quite beautiful. Lots of folks in town are going over to the Farmington Fair this week. Speaking of which — a certain East Andover gent was there on Saturday afternoon. When he went to use the Porta Potty, he suddenly could feel himself moving — literally. The commode was being lifted up to be moved. Obviously they didn't realize it was occupied. Beware the next time that you use a Porta Potty, don't rely on the little sign that says "In Use" when you close the door. No one pays attention to it!

The Telstar Field Hockey team is starting off with a good season. Andover girls playing in the high school this year are: Julia Stambolis, Whitney Mills, Dorothy Palmer and Sarah Averill.

The high school soccer team also has several Andover players: Deegan Conrad, Ethan Morin, Joel Putnam, Elek Pew, Daniel Vaughn and Jeremy Putnam.

Cross Country runners are: Brianne Bailey, Evan Fessenden and Mark Emerson.

Happy belated birthday wishes to Natasha Fifeild on the 22nd, and Katie Mills on the 24th.

Newry

by Sylvia Harrington

As of Saturday, the 29th about 11 a.m., Newry Corner's BRT had tagged 33 bears; the largest one is still the previous week's that weighed in at 425 pounds. The season will be active for a few more weeks. It is now archery season for deer. Anyone interested in participating in the big buck pool should stop by to sign up. This has to be done before hunting deer with guns begins.

The WVSC will meet on Sunday, Oct. 7, at 7 p.m. at the Town Office. The Great Brook bridge will be discussed and the members are hoping to begin work on it this week. Call Leon at 824-3335 for more information.

The Hanover and Newry Recycling Center will have a Household Hazardous Waste Collection on Saturday, Oct. 13, from 9 to 12 a.m.

This past Saturday I had a wonderful conversation with Janis Swan Black. She told me that she and Jack Cronin will be married on Saturday, Nov. 10, in Florida. They are planning a poolside, early evening candlelight service with a small family in attendance. I wish them both a wonderful future and a continuance of the great times they have enjoyed in their interesting relationship.

I do believe the lovely foliage was at its peak a week ago. Ev-everything seems so much duller now, and especially at the top of the mountains.

This past Sunday Mark was out helping me stack wood. He made a good dent in it. He fixed the ramp out front and brought a few loads around to and on the porch. Later I can do the same. After lunching together we went up the Branch Road where he took some interesting pictures of the Branch brook.

This is the first year that I can remember having the honeysuckle bush in bloom so long. It started in early June and here it is the first of October and there are still buds and flowers on it.

Once a year I get to see my cousin, Gladys St. Cyr, in Rumford. This was the week. And, of course, I wish her and her family a great weekend.

I do hope everyone has a wonderful and perhaps busy but peaceful Columbus Week-

Black Mountain starting at 8 a.m. Saturday morning. Hanover is on the 100-mile loop and a rest stop is planned at the Inland Fish and Wildlife parking lot next to the Hanover Town Office. Herb Adams is assisting in coordinating the events. For more information contact River Valley Chamber of Commerce or Black Mountain of Maine.

On Oct. 13, the River Valley Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a fall foliage river run on the Androscoggin River starting from the Hanover Boat Ramp after 10 a.m. registration at Premium Specialty Hardwoods on Route 2 in Rumford and ending at the Rumford Boat Ramp near McDonald's restaurant.

The Hanover Select Board met Sept. 25 for their monthly meeting.

The Board reached an agreement with Doug Wilson of D.A. Wilson to rebuild the disabled parking space at the Town Office. The original parking space could not be certified due to an error. The project to comply with the Americans Disabilities Act needed to be completed by Sept. 27 to be eligible for partial reimbursement from the state of Maine. The office staff was able to secure a 30-day extension and Doug Wilson felt the project could be completed within that time.

"I like working at Rumford Hospital because it provides me the opportunity to work in a rural community hospital."

I split my time between CMMC, a Level II trauma facility and Rumford Hospital, which offers me the best of both worlds. What I like about Rumford is the change of pace and the friendly and supportive staff.

What Central Maine Medical Family brings to Rumford is an exceptional group of well-trained emergency physicians, all of whom are certified by the American Board of Emergency Medicine. There are few rural community hospitals in the country that have such a fine group of emergency physicians.

Rumford is fortunate, too, to have a newly renovated and expanded state-of-the-art emergency department."

In other Select Board business the Board also discussed with Doug Wilson the rebuilding of a portion of the Howard Pond Road. It was expected that the project would begin on Oct. 1.

A recent guest of Joan Tucker has been her brother, Maine Country Music Hall of Fame entertainer Ira Allen of Nashville.

Beryl Bonney entertained Donna Melville and Doreen Merrill at her cottage at South Pond last week. The weather was perfect for camping. A few leaves had turned but it looked more like summer than fall.

Granddaughter Amber Lamb of Colorado visited relatives and friends in the area. She spent two nights with me, did some studying and computer work and then left Saturday for New Hampshire and areas south to do some teaching in ecology. She will be back in two weeks for a further visit. It is good to see this young adult traveling and enjoying her work. Her Grandfather Hugh Hill has been in the hospital where she visited him.

Corn is still fresh and tasty. Also cauliflower is white and plentiful. It is apple-picking time. Many orchards are advertising for all to come and pick your own. Apple picking when I was a teenager was a good way to earn quite a bit of money. During the Second World War when the young men were away fighting, the high school at Buckfield ran one session during the season and took us to the various orchards at noon to help harvest the abundant crop. We were paid by the box, but I do not remember how much.

THE BUMPUS MINE, THEN AND NOW—It took her 75 years, but Janice Jung of Philadelphia last week paid her second visit to the Bumpus Mine in Albany. She first visited the mine in the early 1930s with her father, while summering in Harrison. Jung, who was 6 or 7 at the time, is pictured at top with her hand on the largest beryl crystal in the world, which had recently been mined from the Bumpus site. The crystal is now in the Museum of Natural History in New York. Jung made a return visit with her husband, Bill, touring the mine with Seabury Lyon of Maine Mineralogy Expeditions. At bottom, she sits near the site where the crystal was removed. Jung said she can remember touching the crystal and that it was lying against a wall. The crystal was removed from a trench that was dug during the mining operation.

Tuesday evening, Debbie Brown and I were in East Andover where Debbie did a kitchenware party for Mary Thacker. Besides us, there were Paula Kerosian (I know that is not spelled right but it is as close as I can come), and her friend, Joy; Al Lake (who was filling in for Crystal, who had a board meeting at the church);

BOATS IN THE MIST

Janet Farrington; and a couple more people whose names I did not catch. Paula's boys, Pete and Gabe, helped us eat the delicious food Debbie prepared.

Thursday evening, Debbie and I ventured out again and went to the Norway Rehab where we saw Leah Deegan and Sally, who was there visiting her mother, and Debbie's mother, Ada Cummings, and Helen Farrar. There was quite a write-up on Ada in the Norway Advertiser, which I enjoyed reading.

My daughter, Marcia, said her husband, Jon, is still having back problems from the fall he took in Bangor. They were spending the weekend there to celebrate their 30th wedding anniversary. At least they are going to remember that anniversary for some time to come!

Albany

by Sheila Dyke
Greetings and Hello from Albany Township. Yes, autumn is here! Yes, the days and nights are cooler, and the glorious reds, oranges, and yellows have sprung forth from the trees before falling to the ground.

David Lloyd, John Holiday, and Ben Conant graced the Albany Congregational Church last Sunday with their music and faith. As always, the music was lovely, fun and inspirational. It is always a pleasure when these fine gentlemen bring their talent for music and love of the Lord to the church and its members.

The church meeting will be held on Sunday, Oct. 14, (following services) in the vestry. Tabitha Corriveau celebrated a birthday last weekend. Happy Birthday, Tabitha!

Dyana will be coming home from college this weekend for a visit. We're all looking forward to seeing her. It's been over a month!

This was last Sunday's benediction: "Go on your way in peace; Be of good courage. Hold fast that which is good; Render to no man evil for evil; Strengthen the faint-hearted; support the weak; help and cheer the sick. Honor all men. Love and serve the Lord. May the blessings of God be upon you, and remain with you forever. Amen."

Best wishes for a happy and safe week. God Bless and Keep.

Waterford

by Rockie Graham
October has hit and the air seems very fall like, not too warm and not too cold. We've had a small fire going because David is cold. Never mind that he's in his shop without heat most of the day and leaves me to be all too hot indoors. That's OK; I periodically go out and harass him so he doesn't get too cold.

The garden is all but done, except for a little broccoli and a few errant squashes. There may also be some other plants such as cabbage and kale that are frost hardy. They can actually taste better after a frost. We are scheduled to go to the Fryeburg Fair on Tuesday, but Dave is already trying to back out. We shall see what happens. It is Senior Citizen Day and they have an antique tractor exhibit. Perhaps we shall go after all. If so, I will let you know how it was.

Next week, on Wednesday, the 10th, the Board of Oxford County Recycling meets at 7 p.m. at the Norway Town Office. A quorum is needed so please attend if you are a Board member. We will talk about setting up budget meetings and personnel committees and more. FMI: call Rockie at 743-0583.

Thursday, Oct. 11, Waterford/Stoneham/Albany Lions Club will meet at 6:30 p.m. at the Stoneham Rescue Barn. All Lions should bring something for a Potluck. Check with Vera to sign up for a kind of dish, i.e. veggies, dessert, main dish.

Since I injured my hand and typing is almost impossible, I will leave it at this for this week. Enjoy the Fall and have a great week — the weather is supposed to be great.

Telstar Alumni Association

On Saturday, Oct. 13, the Telstar Alumni Association is sponsoring a Chinese Auction in which the entire proceeds will go to our Educational Assistance Awards Fund. The auction viewing and bidding will go from 2 to 4 p.m., and the auction drawings will start at 4 p.m. The event will take place at the American Legion Hall in Locke Mills.

We are still looking for items for this event. If any Telstar alumni have any new items, regifiable items or any gently used items, please e-mail or give any of the people below a call and we'll be glad to pick up the items.

We are also looking for donations of cookies, brownies or bars, as we will be serving a lunch of hot dogs, chili and sandwiches.

Come on Telstar Alumni, we would like to get at least one donation from each class that has graduated from Telstar in the last 38 years. There are roughly 4,000 grads out there. If you can't donate, at least come and help us out and have some fun.

For more information, or to make donations, call Sally (875-3335 or e-mail sallys71@adelphia.net), Cindy (824-2759 or e-mail hutchins@sad44.org), or Joe (533-2010 or e-mail poco02@megalink.net).

Bethel Lions Club

Oct. 7 will be the day members of the Bethel Lions Club will walk or run the Maine Half-marathon in Portland. We walk to raise funds and awareness for the local Girls on the Run program — you can show your support by sending a donation of any size to Western Maine Girls Association P.O. Box 1246, Bethel, ME 04217. Your donations are considered tax deductible. Please be sure to list sponsorship of the Bethel Lions Club.

Our next meeting will be conducted on Oct. 11 at 6 p.m. at the United Methodist Church, Main Street, Bethel, with coffee and dessert served. Come check us out; people of all ages welcome.

Young adults interested in becoming a part of a new community-oriented club are encouraged to call Becky Morin at 836-2243 or e-mail at jerbeck@megalink.net. More information will be provided.

ed at the school through announcements.

Please remember that we are continually collecting eyeglasses, sunglasses, hearing aids, and cell phones throughout the community with boxes located at the IGA, Brooks Bros., CPS, WES, and the Bethel Area Health Center. We do hope to put out more in other areas of the SAD44 district.

Mundt-Allen Post & Unit 81

On Patriots Day, the members of Post and Unit 81 began the fall season by hosting a dinner for this past summer's Boys and Girls State attendees they sponsored.

The dinner was potluck, supplemented by sliced ham with cheese and dessert provided by Unit 81 President Arlene Bean and members of the ladies' Auxiliary.

Following dinner, Post Commander Richard Grover introduced honored guests Kelsey Gamble, with her mother, and Christopher Schwarz and his parents. Other Boys State and Girls State attendees not present were Esther Prue and Mark Emerson.

After introductions, the post commander introduced Post Americanism Officer Norm Clanton and Don Feeney, who acted as moderators, leading Kelsey and Chris through a series of questions like, "Did you meet anyone at Girls State who left a lasting impression on you?" And, "What did you learn about politics at Boys State?" Chris' answer was that he decided he does not want to get involved in politics in any way!

An engaging discussion ensued, with several questions by audience participants and mature answers by the students. With young people like these coming along, it seems as though our future will be in good hands.

A short business meeting of legionnaires completed the evening's activities.

Walker and Chris Schwarz rushed down the field with Schwarz drawing the Livermore defender to the side. Schwarz passed in to Walker who passed the ball to Del Duca for the winning goal. During regulation play, Livermore scored first on a penalty kick. Chris Schwarz tied the game, the result of a fast pass and go sequence of plays with Del Duca. Schwarz, Del Duca, Walker led the offense, with assistance from Ben Cross. Strong defensive plays were made by Joe Fournier, James Kimball, Paul Saucier, and Deagan Conrad. Andy Whitney and Alex Gundersen contributed in the midfield. Daniel Vaughn had 7 saves in goal. —coach Tim Remington

Youth Football

Woodstock 30, Boothbay 14; Sept. 29—The Woodstock Wolfpack came away with a convincing 30-14 win to even their record at 1 win, 1 loss and 1 tie. Tough play was registered team-wide and was the dominant theme as the Wolfpack registered their first win in their short history. Tight end Corey Howard opened the scoring on Woodstock's third offensive play when he reeled in a short pass from quarterback Kyle Peterson and raced 50 yards untouched up the sideline. On Woodstock's next possession halfback Derick Poland reversed field on a sweep and scampered 45 yards to put the Wolfpack ahead 12-0. The score became 18-0 when slotback Danny Whitney took a pass 60 yards to the end zone with some nifty open field running, and just before halftime quarterback Dominic Haines broke a sweep around the right end for 70 yards and a 24-0 half-time lead. Boothbay got on the board in the 3rd quarter when they scored on a punt return and later on a short drive due to a Wolfpack miscue. With the score 24-14 and Boothbay gaining steam, the momentum shifted back to Woodstock when Josh Bonney forced a fumble on a punt return and Devin Vail recovered it. Halfback Nick Mills then ripped off a long run to the Boothbay 15 yard line and shortly after he ran it in from the 6 to secure the victory. The Wolfpack defense was outstanding, holding Boothbay to just one score on a short drive. The Woodstock JVs upped their record to 3-0 with a 6 to nothing win in scrimmage action. Halfback Dylan Poland provided the lone score and the JV defense shut Boothbay down as they were never able to mount a threat. The Wolfpack travels to Dirigo Saturday to take on the Cougars.—coach Jim Rose

Lisbon 14, Woodstock 0; Sept. 19—to a much larger Lisbon squad. The Wolfpack defense kept the game close as it was just 6-0 after three quarters, but fatigue set in as Lisbon kept fielding fresh players against the scrappy Woodstock team and sealed the victory in the fourth quarter. Offensively, the Wolfpack had trouble with Lisbon's defensive speed but nice catches were recorded by tight end Corey Howard and halfback Derick Poland and hard running up the middle was provided by fullback Will Lyman and Derick Poland. Earlier in the afternoon, the Wolfpack JV squad upped its record to 2-0 as they held off a late Lisbon charge to register a 16-10 victory. Quarterback Dominic Haines scored a pair of first half touchdowns and Richard Leonard added a tough run up the middle for a 2-point conversion as Woodstock took a 16-0 lead into halftime. The score remained the same until late in the fourth quarter when Lisbon scored 10 quick points on a safety after a blocked punt followed by a touchdown run on the ensuing kickoff and a 2-point conversion but it was too little, too late as the Wolfpack got the ball back and ran out the clock to secure the win.—coach Jim Rose

NEWELL INDUCTED INTO HALL OF FAME—Coach Charlie Newell, class of 1962 and resident of Locke Mills, accepts a plaque from Adrienne Shibbes, dean of athletics and co-curricular activities, recognizing his induction into Gould Academy's new Athletic Hall of Fame. Newell was one of eight inductees that included former coaches as well as alumni. Others inducted were: Herbert Adams, '54, Coach Francis "Hi" Berry, '44, Carl Burnett, '99, Eva Cardova, '98, Albert "Red" Norwood, '46, Thomas Pena, '90, and Coach Richmond "Joe" Roderick. The ceremony also included the dedication of the new, wooden Lombard Basketball Court made possible through the generous leadership contribution by David Lombard '61 and his wife Susan. The court comes on the heels of Gould's Western Maine Championship season and the program's move into a more competitive Class C Division. More than 100 alums and their families, students, and community and faculty members attended the ceremony, part of the school's Alumni Weekend, which drew more than 300 former Gould students and their families to Bethel.

From
Roxbury ATV Riders

The monthly meeting was held Friday, Sept. 21, at President Mike Worthley's home in Roxbury at 7 p.m. with approximately 20 members in attendance. The secretary's report was not read, as all information is in the newsletter. The treasurer's report was read and accepted.

Trailmaster's Report

The Selectman in Andover have asked that the ATV's ride on the tarred part of the town roads and not the dirt shoulder. To avoid losing any trail access and monies from state grants, please pass the word along about this request.

Big thank-yous to Richard Pelletier and Kenny Koskela for all the work they have been doing on our trails. Trails having been worked on this year have been the Mine Notch Trail, Devil's Den, Cochran Road, the Chandler and Coley trails. Several members will be receiving various items of clothing from the club for the number of hours spent on trail maintenance.

All of our trails have now been G.P.S.d and mapped out. Maps are available for $3 apiece. Thank you very much to John Huoy and Brown Fox Printing for wrapping this project up for us. If you would like a map sent to you, please mail a self-addressed stamped envelope to Mike Worthley, Box 196, Roxbury, ME 04275 and he'll see that you get a map.

Thank you to Bing Cross and Denise Carrier and also the Reggie Arsenault family. They are currently doing some renovations and all their excess fill has been donated to the Park and Ride.

Our ATV club had a great year this year. Working with the Snow Valley Sno-goers was a big plus for our club. A lot was accomplished with the two clubs working together.

It's that time of year to think of snow. Please join a local snowmobile club and help support them in their endeavors. Working and supporting each other only makes the trail system a better place to ride.

The following trails will be closed on Oct. 19 due to the upcoming hunting season:

Horseshoe Valley to Farmers Hill, to Route 120 to over the bridge to the Park and Ride. This should cover all the trails behind Mike and Wanda Worthley's property.

On Aug. 25, the club participated in the Hope Road. It was a big success and it looks like next year it will be much bigger. Next year we anticipate a need for up to 36 four-wheelers.

Old Business

The next ride is the fall foliage ride on Oct. 6. The Narrow Gauge Riders (Phillips/Madrid area) will be joining us on this ride. We are thinking of a picnic at Devil's Den. We would provide the main meal and they will bring the desserts. Contact Mike or Wanda for further info.

On Sunday of Labor Day Weekend, we held the Donald E. Ryerson Memorial Poker Run. Many folks won door prizes. The big winners were: 1st place Matthew Burnham, 2nd place Katie Ricci and 3rd place Donna Webber, winning $90, $55 and $41. Ryan Harris won the $100 door prize. The 50/50 raffle was won by Larry Mayo in the amount of $95.

Thank you to Craig Ryerson for donating the $100 door prize and $400 to the Donald E. Ryerson Children's Welfare Fund.

Last month, Tim Canwell mentioned a donation to a local charity for the troops in Iraq called "Close to Home." Area veterans will receive packages from this charity. It was voted to donate $100 to this cause. Tim also mentioned a ride for the Veterans. Perhaps asking a veteran to ride on a four-wheeler for the Memorial Day Parade next year.

Don't forget the New Hampshire Ride on Oct. 13. For more information you can call Mike or Wanda at 545-2715.

On Saturday, Dec. 8, the Roxbury ATV Club will be hosting the ATV Maine monthly meeting at the Town Hall in Andover. This meeting will run from 9 a.m. to about 2 p.m. We will be hosting the luncheon for the state. Club members are more than welcome to attend. If you are planning on attending this meeting, please notify Mike or Wanda at 545-2715 and let them know so we can plan accordingly on the number that we will plan on for food.

Nominations for officers and board members were done. We are looking for a secretary. If you are interested please let Mike or Wanda know. The slate of officers will be voted on at the next meeting.

Our toy run Xmas in July long-sleeve shirts are available for $5 apiece. If you would like any and want them please let us know.

Our next meeting is Oct. 19 after which will be no more meetings until next spring, except for the ATV Maine meeting in Andover in December.

The 50/50 was won by Cathy Ferreira, $25. Door prizes were won by Alan Bodwell, Harold Hutchins and Dave Sinclair.

Please remember to stay on the tarred roads of Andover per request of the Selectmen.

From
Bethel Historical Society's Regional History Center

David Fuller, Agriculture and Natural Resources professional at the University of Maine's Cooperative Extension Service, will be the featured speaker at the next lecture in the 2007 Bethel Historical Society series on "Maine Character and Characters" to be held on Thursday, Oct. 11, at 7:30 p.m. in the meeting room of the Dr. Moses Mason House, 14 Broad Street.

Collecting and chewing spruce gum has been a Maine tradition for generations. Fuller will provide insights into the collection and marketing of spruce gum in Maine through the years. This lecture and others in the series have been made possible in part by a grant from the Maine Humanities Council. The lecture is free and open to all interested persons.

Sunday River Christian Ministry

This year's foliage reports state that conditions are possibly going to be right for a brilliantly-colored autumn show. One of the best places to witness the glory along with others is on the deck of Sunday River's North Peak Lodge.

A tradition with many families for almost a decade is Sunday River Christian Ministry's interdenominational worship service held during the resort's Fall Festival Weekend, Sunday, Oct. 7, at 10 a.m.

Worshippers can enjoy a free chair-lift ride or hike up to the Lodge. Lift #6 will carry everyone, slowly and safely close to the Lodge where a short walk downhill will bring you to the deck. The praise-filled service lasts about an hour and then you can choose to hike down or reload on the chair-lift.

Music this year will be supplied by the Mollycoddett Chorus and Gospel Singer Cynthia Clark.

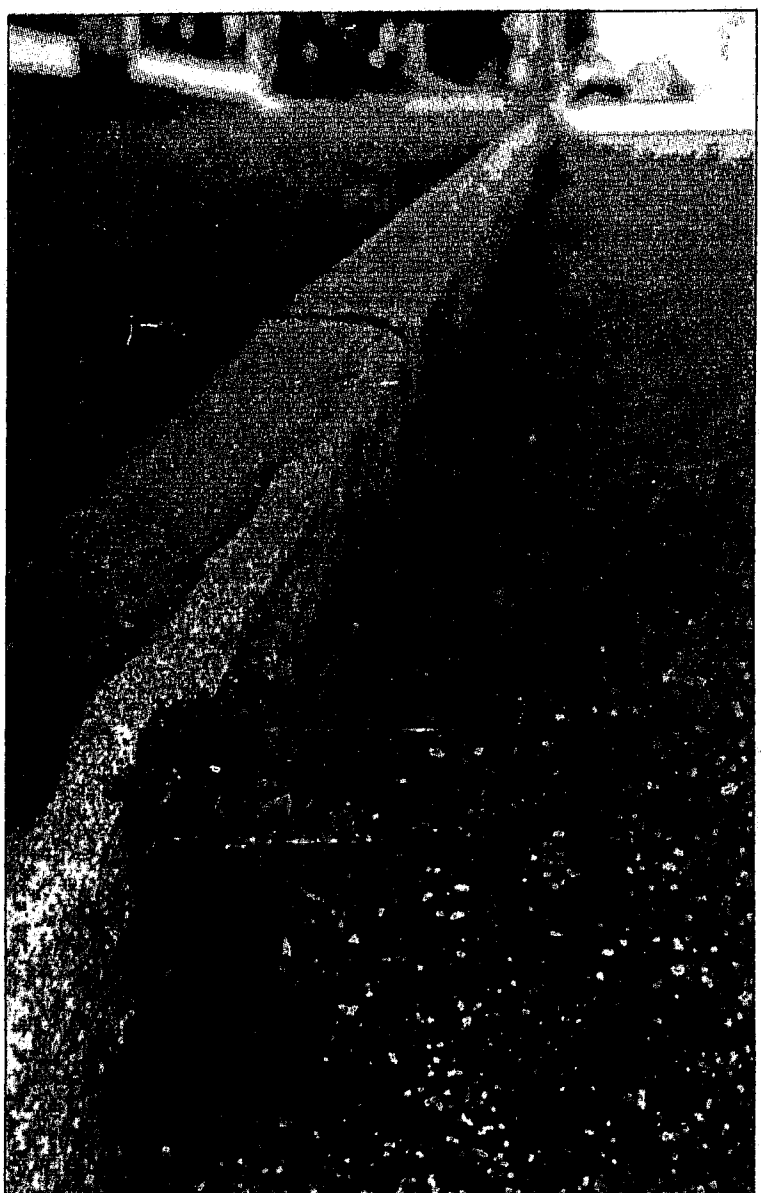

The Mollycoddett Chorus is a chapter of Sweet Adelines International featuring women's voices in four-part harmony.

Members come from a wide area including Bethel, Rumford, Lovell, Norway, South Paris, Bridgton, Auburn, and Casco.

We hope to see you as we celebrate this glorious time of year in such a spectacular setting.

For more information, please call 824-5896 (SRCM recording) or 824-3000 (Sunday River Resort).

Our regular Sunday services will again be held in the Upper Room when ski season starts, hopefully soon!

From

Oxford County Republicans

John Bradford of Brooklin, Maine, representing the Republican Leadership Council, will be the featured speaker at the Oct. 9 monthly meeting of the Oxford County Republican Committee to be held at Franklin Grange 124 on Route 26 in Bryant Pond. The evening will begin with a 5:30 p.m. social hour, 6:30 p.m. dinner followed by the speaker and a short business meeting. All area Republicans are cordially invited to attend.

Oxford County Republicans are volunteering to run the party's booth at Fryeburg Fair.

The booth contains all kinds of useful information on Republican candidates and important issues of interest to many voters.

Those attending the fair should not miss this opportunity to stop by and visit with one or more of the following volunteers organized by Becky Kendall: Joan Putnam, Jarrod Crockett, Paul Billings, Barbara Robinson, Bruce Hanley, Neil Hanley, Rob and Louanne Cameron, Dennis Doyon, Arlan and Eleanor Jodrey, Dan Bolling, Virginia Noble, Paula Smith, Earl Bell, Norm Ferguson, Paul Ramsey, Dot Bartlett, Bruce and Nancy Conant, Harry Faulkner, George Hooper, Sawin Millett and Stan Howe.

Any Republican wishing to join the above in hosting the booth during Fryeburg Fair week should call Becky Kendall at 824-3196.

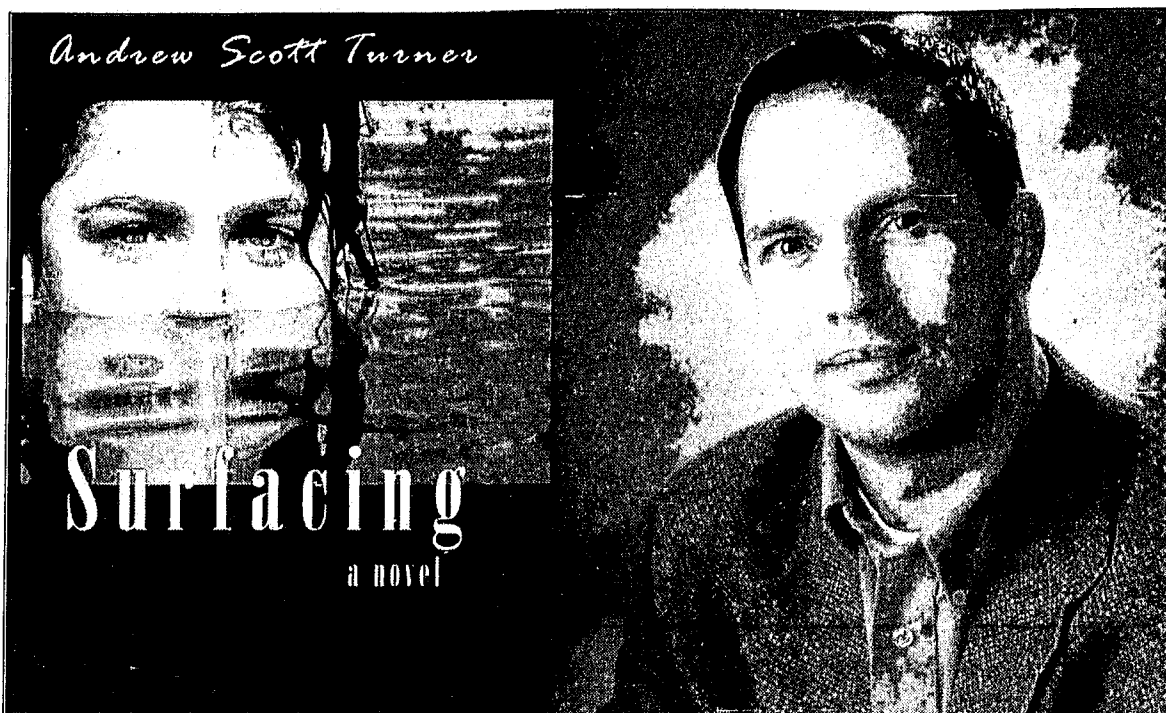

Republicans in the Maine House of Representatives District 99, which contains the Oxford County town of Denmark, recently elected Ralph Sarty, Jr. of Denmark as their nominee for the seat previously held by Rep. Phil Cressey (R-Cornish). Sarty has many years of involvement in municipal government and currently serves as chairman of the Denmark Board of Selectmen. He is retired from the Maine State Police and the Maine Warden Service and is also a small business owner. Married for 37 years, he has three children and five grandchildren.

Tony Payne, executive director, Alliance for Maine's Future, was the featured speaker at the Sept. 11 monthly meeting of the Oxford County Republican Committee held at the Stoneham Congregational Church on Route 5 in Stoneham village.

Following a bountiful supper served by a family representing the Daughters of Union Veterans, Payne outlined his non-partisan organization's ideas for changing Maine's economy and suggested new approaches to the critical issues facing the state. Among those changes and ideas are: capping state spending (the Democratic Legislature actually increased state spending by 8 percent), restructuring state government by stopping what doesn't work and investing in things that do, creating a competitive healthcare market, make it easier and inviting to start or grow a business, reduce the overall tax burden, particularly the tax on income and capital gains until Maine is ranked at least in the middle third of all states, and finally change the attitudes of a majority of legislators or send new legislators who "get it."

The next monthly meeting will be on Nov. 13.

NOVEL PUBLISHED—Buckfield resident Andrew Scott Turner recently published his first novel, "Surfacing," a fantasy/science fiction book for young adults. Surfacing tells the story of a young girl's attempt to break from the restrictive traditions of her society. Set several miles underground and 200 years into the future, the book chronicles the adventures of Mena, a 13-year-old girl who is destined to be chosen, among a select number of other girls, to eventually be the mothers of the next generation. This is Turner's first novel, a work that took two years to complete. A 1987 graduate of Oxford Hills High School, Turner started his professional writing career in 1991 as a reporter for the Advertiser-Democrat. That was followed by jobs with the Sun-Journal/Sunday and the Lincoln County News in Damariscotta. In 1999 he walked away from newspapers and began a career in web development for an international telecommunications corporation in Minneapolis, Minn. In 2002 he returned to Norway and worked as Web master for Community Concepts in South Paris. Currently he works as a freelance Web developer from his home in Buckfield. Copies of "Surfacing" can be ordered through booklocker.com, barnesandnoble.com, amazon.com or through local bookstores.

REAL ESTATE AND YOU

THE REAL ESTATE MARKET IS ALWAYS ADJUSTING
The question on everyone's mind is how low will the market go? Everywhere you turn, you hear about the "plunging real estate market". But in reality, today's market is just following its normal pattern which is to average a 4- to 5-year upswing, followed by a 1- to 3-year adjustment.

Despite what all the pundits are saying, the truth is, we are again in such an adjustment period. Mike Moran, chief economist for Daiwa Securities America says, "We're going through a correction in the housing market, but it's a badly needed correction. It's healthy and unavoidable. All we've done is squeezed out the exuberance of 2004 and 2005."

With a larger inventory of homes for sale and interest rates still low, buyers have a great window of opportunity. At the same time, sellers whose homes are well priced, and in good condition, continue to make profitable sales. Consequently, this is a good time for both buyers and sellers!

For professional advice on all aspects of buying or selling real estate, contact Cindy Hiebert at Mahoosuc Realty, 207-824-2771

MELVIN E. AKERS

Melvin E. Akers, 71, of Linda Lane in Sanbornville, N.H., died suddenly Wednesday morning, Sept. 26, 2007, at his home.

Born Aug. 13, 1936 and raised in Andover, he was a son of the late Merle and Ruth (Bailey) Akers. He served an apprenticeship at General Electric in Lynn, Mass., where he was employed for 17 years.

He resided on Lovell Lake in Sanbornville since 1966, where he built his home, his pride and joy, where, for the past 10 years, every summer, he would host a General Electric reunion of friends. He was a builder of homes.

An avid skier, he enjoyed hiking, bicycling and loved to take family and friends water skiing.

Survivors include his wife of 22 years, Cynthia L. (White) Akers of Sanbornville; and children, Dana and Martha Jaquith Akers of Woburn, Mass., Ben Akers and Meg Parker and Isabella Maria Akers of Park City, Utah, Kristan E. Scott and Sumner Scott, Addy, Ashley and Philip of Barrington, N.H., Russell J. Loncaric and Kathy Chick Loncaric, Mike and Drake of Kailua, Hawaii, Rebecca L. Loncaric and Brandon Horton of Pensacola, Fla., and James Warren Akers of Sanbornville; his brothers, Leon and wife, Trudy Akers and family of Andover, Charlie and wife, Linda Akers and family of Alaska; also his former wife, Jean Akers of Franconia, N.H.

There will be no public services; the family will have a private gathering at the lake.

CONSTANCE L. BACON

Constance Laura Walton Bacon, 74, of West Paris, died Oct. 2, 2007 at Ledgeview Living Center (LLC), after a long period of illness.

Connie was born in March of 1933 in Lewiston, to William and Ida (Webb) Walton. One of nine children, she grew up for the most part in Lewiston and was educated in the Lewiston schools, graduating from Lewiston High in 1951.

On May 28, 1955, she married Vance Ralph Bacon and lived in South Paris and Norway, until 1966, when they bought their house in West Paris, and made it their home for the next 39 years. Even though failing health intervened, they continued to live in town, first moving to Mountain View Apartments, and then to LLC, where they had resided since the fall of 2006.

In 2005, they celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary at a gathering of family and friends.

Connie was very active in the West Paris community. She was a member for many years of the West Paris Fire Department Ladies' Auxiliary as secretary and treasurer.

er. She was also a dispatcher for the West Paris Fire Department. She was an original member of Tri-Town Ambulance and Emergency Rescue Service, serving in the Auxiliary and as an In-Service Dispatcher. She was a Cub Scout Den Leader and was the Town Clerk for one year. She belonged to the West Paris Historical Society and served as secretary. Connie was also librarian for the West Paris Public Library for several years.

Connie and Vance were well known at the Cathedral Pines Camping Area and in the village of Stratton, Maine. This was their premier camping spot for many years which they enjoyed with their circle of friends.

Connie was a communicant of St. Catherine's of Sienna in Norway and had worked for many years in the insurance industry in the Oxford Hills area.

Connie is survived by her husband, Vance, of 52 years; daughter Kathleen Besette and her husband Robert of Fairfax, Vt.; son Kenneth Bacon and his wife Cheryl Broberg Bacon of Otisfield; two brothers: William Walton, Jr. and his wife Ann of Sababus, Frank Walton and his wife Charlotte of Lisbon; two sisters: Patricia McCollough of Rumford and Doris Albert and her husband Anthony of Lewiston; one granddaughter and two grandsons, all of Fairfax, Vt.; and many nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her parents, William and Ida (Webb) Walton; a brother, Leo Walton; and sisters Mary Nichols, Carolyn Atwood and Veronica Malia.

Relatives and friends are invited to call at Andrews Funeral Home, Woodstock, on Friday, Oct. 5 from 1 to 3 and 6 to 8 p.m. A funeral Mass will be celebrated at St. Catherine of Sienna Church, Paris Street, Norway on Saturday at 10 a.m. Burial will be in the Wayside Cemetery, West Paris. Memorials in her memory are requested to the West Paris Public Library Building Fund, P.O. Box 307, West Paris, ME 04289.

A special ultraviolet camera makes it possible to see the underlying skin damage done by the sun. And since 1 in 5 Americans will develop skin cancer in their lifetime, what better reason to always use sunscreen, wear protective clothing and use common sense.

Card of Thanks

Our appreciation to the staff at Stephens Memorial Hospital, and Norway Rehab. Thanks to family, special friends for visits, phone calls, cards, flowers and visits the minister made with Jean, and the service. Everyone helped to make her final days happy.

To my sister Jean Marston:

You will be remembered when flowers bloom in spring, And in the summertime remembered in the fun summer brings. You will be remembered, when fall brings leaves of gold, In the winter time remembered, in the stories that are told. You will be remembered, each day right from the start, For the memories that we once shared, Forever live within my heart.

Sister Louise & Roger Twitchell
